

February 24, 2012

To All MAGA Members:

The Lorena Ochoa Golf Foundation is proud to offer two scholarships to attend the PGA of America Ryder Cup Junior Academy conducted at the PGA Center for Golf Learning and Performance in Port St. Lucie, Florida from July 1st to 8th, 2012.

Attendees will have a once-in-a-lifetime treat as a Past Ryder Cup Captain will have an active role with this Academy, working with all of the juniors to provide mentoring and coaching support. Considering there have been only 27 PGA Professionals invited to serve as Ryder Cup Captains, they offer an incredibly unique perspective and a wealth of knowledge to guide you to maximize your potential.

Criteria:

This opportunity is for one (1) boy and one (1) girl ages 14-17. Applicant must be enrolled in an accredited high school, have a 2.5 GPA or higher and a desire to excel in competitive golf.

The PGA of America will provide airfare, housing, on-site meals, ground transportation from airport to hotel, ground transportation to offsite events and the Ryder Cup Junior Academy onsite experience.

If you cannot open the information and application attachments they will be posted on the MAGA website.

The application is time sensitive. Applications deadline is: March 12 at 5:00 PM.

Send applications to:

jtpga@pga.com

or

Lorena Ochoa Golf Foundation

C/O RCJA

7032 Alviso Ave

Riverside, CA 92509

Jason Taylor, PGA
Executive Director

Lorena Ochoa Golf Foundation

jtpga@pga.com / 951-712-7843

www.lorenaslinsks.org